

STEVEN HENEGAR

STORYTELLER

TRUTH AND LIESsm

CONCERTS

Likely Stories

Vibrant original and traditional American tales celebrate the wonderful variety of stories that friends, families and communities use to “share their lives” with each other. Steven finds the everyday and the fantastic in stories that grew up here or took root with new arrivals—a comfortable, personable trip through growing-up stories, original fiction, literature, veracious tall tales, and traditional stories of adventure and magic.

Funny and affecting stories: Truth & Lies from long ago or just last week.

*Original, traditional and literary stories primarily from the Midwest & South
Story selection varies to fit audience or situation
Time: 75-90 minutes.*

Under The Moon

Magic, mystery and a distant howl - the dead moon, a hungry skeleton, the doctor-werewolf and others beckon as chills and laughter wrap around you in these tales of light and shadow.

*Original and traditional stories from the U.S. & Europe
Story selection varies to fit audience or situation
Time: 75 - 90 minutes*

Embarrassment & Death

Growing up was trickier than Ozzie and Harriet led us to believe. Touching and laugh out loud funny, these original stories follow a boy growing up during the 1950's and 60's. Thirty-five naked five-year-old boys face their first Swimming Lesson at the YWCA; a class fieldtrip discovers How Things Work at the slaughter house; the perpetual neighborhood baseball game is called on account of the falling Fighter Pilot. Alternately or determined, he navigates these and the other everyday ambushes of his life as death passes by and sometimes circles nearer.

*Written & Performed by Steven Henegar
Time: 75-90 minutes*